Mr. James H. Lesar
Suite 509
918 F Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004

Dear Mr. Lesar:

In processing your request for records about the assassination of Dr. King, for your client, Harold Weisberg, the Federal Bureau of Investigation located two documents which originated in the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice, and referred those documents to us for our review and direct response to you.

In light of our review, we have determined to release item 1 in full and item 2 in part. We are withholding the portions indicated of this item pursuant to the following FOIA exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(b):

- (6) which permits the withholding of personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy; and,
- (7) which permits the withholding of records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information...
- (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

You have a right to an administrative appeal of this partial denial of your request. Department regulations provide that such appeals must be filed within thirty days of your receipt of this letter. 28 C.F.R. 16.8. Your appeal should be addressed to: The Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of Justice, 10th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530. Both the envelope and the letter should be clearly marked with the legend "FOIA Appeal." If you exercise this right and your appeal is denied, you also have the right to seek judicial review of this action in the federal judicial district (1) in which you reside, (2) in which you have your principal place of business, (3) in which the records denied are located, or (4) for the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,
